'Just tell truth in Sona'

President urged to talk about accomplishments, mistakes

By Marlon Barrios, Warren Bernardino and Jerome Alang

MARILYN ARQUIMISHIP, a former Sona aide, has been asked to tell the truth about the president's performance and mistakes during his tenure.

The article discusses the challenges Sona faced during his presidency and the need for transparency and accountability.

Performance, trust ratings: It's downhill after 2004

The graph shows that Sona's performance and trust ratings have been declining since 2004. The performance rating, which was at its peak in 2004, has since then fluctuated but generally trended downwards.

The trust ratings, which were also high in 2004, have since then shown a more volatile but generally downward trend. The article suggests that this decline is due to various factors, including corruption and mismanagement.

The article concludes by stating that Sona's legacy is being questioned, and there is a call for a more transparent and accountable government.

6 YEARS OF GMA: A REVIEW

Scandals without closure overshadow achievements

The article reviews the achievements and scandals of GMA over the past six years. It highlights the network's success in various programs and its impact on Philippine television, while also pointing out the challenges it has faced, particularly in terms of closure and transparency.

The article also discusses the network's financial performance and its relationship with its shareholders. It mentions the challenges of operating in a highly competitive market and the need for innovation and growth.

Environment suffered badly, say critics

Critics argue that the environment has suffered significantly due to government policies and actions. They point to deforestation, pollution, and the loss of biodiversity as major concerns.

The article also discusses the impact of climate change on the Philippines and the need for urgent action to address the issue. It mentions the role of the government and the private sector in promoting sustainable development.

GMA must declare she's stepping down next year

The article discusses the political situation in the Philippines and the need for GMA to declare her intention to step down by the end of the year. It mentions the challenges she has faced and the need for a new leader to take over.

San Francisco, California

San Francisco, California

Ang mamamayan ng Lungsod ng Muntinlupa at ang mga pang-lingkod ay takas-pasong nakikisap sa IGLESIA NI CRISTO sa pagpunita ng ika-95 anibersaryo ng kanilang pagpapakilala. Sa lahat ng bahay, sa mga bayan, sa mga ita at pagtatatagpuan ni Ka Felix V. Managla hanggang kay Ka Bryan C. Managla, ang Iglesia ni Cristo ay nagmamalasakit sa paglalagay ng kanyang mga hula lamang sa pagpapaluma ng mga salita ng Inyos kundi sa iba't ibang ganung pagpapunta.

Mula, nagsisimang ipapating ang malugod at magagandang pagbati sa lahat ng mga kaanib sa Iglesia ni Cristo sa buong mundo!

Rains seen during Sona

By Mike Chan

HEAVY RAINS AND WIND STORMS ON MONDAY AND TUESDAY MAY BE CAUSED BY A LOW PRESSURE SYSTEM THAT WILL BRING A LARGE AMOUNT OF RAINFALL TO THE PHILIPPINES.

As heavy rain and strong winds are expected to hit the Philippines on Monday and Tuesday, the National Weather Service (NWS) has issued a forecast for the country.

The NWS forecast for Monday and Tuesday shows a low pressure system moving into the Philippines from the west. This system is expected to bring heavy rain and strong winds to the country.

Junk recount, Panlilio asks SC

Manila, May 16—The Philippine Commission on the Truth and Reconciliation (PCHR) has asked the Supreme Court (SC) to nullify its report on the 1986-1988 human rights violations, saying it was a "junk" report.

PCHR Chairman Antonio M. Posada said the report was "a collection of hearsay and rumors" and that it did not contain any evidence to support its findings. He said the report was "a complete fabrication" and that it was "a disgrace to the Philippine people."

Baguio rebuilding century-old market

By [Name]

Baguio, Benguet province, is undergoing a major reconstruction project to replace the century-old Baguio Market, which has been a landmark in the city since its founding in 1906. The new market, located in the heart of the city, is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The project is part of a larger urban renewal program aimed at improving the city's infrastructure and providing a modern marketplace for its residents.

The new market, which is being built on the site of the old market, is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

The new market is a multi-story building with a modern design, featuring large glass windows and a flat roof. It is located in the heart of the city, near the Baguio Market, and is expected to attract a large number of shoppers. The project is being funded by the local government and private investors. The new market is expected to provide a better shopping experience for the residents of Baguio and surrounding areas.

Cotabato bombing suspect arrested

Manila, Jan. 28 (AP) — A man suspected of being involved in the Jan. 27 bombing of a bus in Cotabato City was arrested today by police.

The man, identified as a 30-year-old resident of Cotabato, was arrested by police in a city here.

The bombing was believed to have been carried out by a group of militant Muslims.

The bus was carrying a group of people, including a number of children, when it was bombed.

The explosion killed several people and injured many others.

The police are now looking for other suspects in the bombing.

IGLESIA NI CRISTO: PAGGALANG AT PAGHANGA

Rep. Miriam Defensor Santiago

Rep. Miriam Defensor Santiago

Atty. Melanio 'Basa' Marcelo

We are filled with respect and admiration for the Iglesia ni Cristo under Executive Minister Erdo G. Manalo and Deputy Executive Minister Eduardo V. Manalo.

INC is an Indigenous Philippine religious institution that began with the moral courage and invincible faith of one man, Feth V. Manalo. It is proliferating by the sheer moral force of its message that God is the Supreme Reality. Thus, it has won steadfast adherence not only throughout our country, but also throughout the world.

This is truly awesome. What started as one great man's faith has turned into a global phenomenon.

We extend our wholehearted love to all our brothers and sisters, the kapatid of the INC. As Filipinos, we are immensely proud of both Ka Erdo and Ka Eduardo as two of the esteemed spiritual leaders of the world today. We join hands with INC in our common journey toward God, who is eternal love.

Union Bank profit up 83%

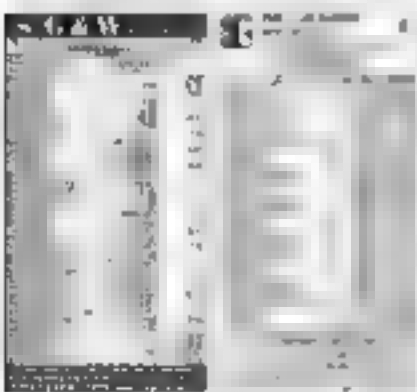

By Ben J. Qunag

Union Bank's third-quarter earnings rose 83% from a year ago, driven by a combination of factors, including a strong performance in its commercial banking division. The bank reported earnings of $1.1 million, compared to $600,000 in the same period last year. This increase was primarily due to higher net interest income and a reduction in non-interest expenses. Union Bank's management expressed confidence in the bank's long-term growth prospects, citing its strong capital position and diversified business model.

PNOU EC hears deal with BHP Billiton

The Environmental Commission (EC) has heard a proposal from PNOU regarding a deal with BHP Billiton. The proposal involves a significant investment in infrastructure and environmental management. PNOU representatives presented detailed plans to the EC, outlining the project's scope, potential impacts, and proposed mitigation measures. The EC is currently reviewing the proposal and may request further information or modifications before reaching a final decision.

The meeting focused on the details of the proposed deal and the role of the EC in overseeing the process. Officials from both PNOU and BHP Billiton were present, along with members of the EC. The discussion covered various aspects of the project, including financial terms, timelines, and environmental safeguards. The EC emphasized its commitment to ensuring that any deal struck is in the best interests of the public and the environment.

U.S. takes a step closer to ending hunger in RP

By Ronald Gruber

MANILA, Philippines — The United States has taken a significant step toward ending hunger in the Philippines by providing $10 million in aid to the Department of Agriculture. The aid will be used to support various agricultural programs, including the distribution of seeds and fertilizers to small farmers. The aid is part of a larger effort by the U.S. government to support agricultural development in the Philippines and to improve the lives of the Filipino people.

RP resilient

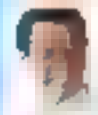

Despite the challenges it faces, the Philippines remains a resilient nation. The country has shown a strong ability to recover from natural disasters and economic setbacks. The aid from the United States will help the Philippines continue its efforts to improve its economy and the lives of its people.
